

Babuchara Incident

(16 October 1999)

On 16/10/99 the army and the Bengali settlers made a severe attack on the Jumma at Babuchara Bazaar of Dighinala thana in Khagrachari Hill District. Three Jumma were killed and more than hundred received serious injuries. It happened when one army personnel touched the breast of one Jumma girl named Ms. Mitti Chakma(16) d/o Nilajoy Chakma of village Baghaichari in Dighinala. When Mitti Chakma shouted catching the hand of the Habildar named Jahir then the he (Habildar) pushed her where she felt on the ground. Then some Jumma came to rescue her. The Habildar caught one Jumma and started beating with the help of his colleague named constable Alam. Then all the Jummas of the Bazaar gathered and started beating the two-army personnel. Later, the army from the nearby camps and Bengali of the bazaar jointly started beating the jummas indiscriminately and ransacked the shops of the jummas. Later some children and women were brought to the nearby army camp where they (Jumma) were severely beaten by gun butts and sticks. Two Jumma youth were confined to the camp that were released later with serious injuries and admitted to hospital. Meanwhile, a group of army led by major Kalam, with the help of Bengali settlers went to a village where they ransacked the Jumma's houses and beat indiscriminately. Another group of army and settlers led by one Major attacked the Karbari Tila village where many houses and one Buddhist temple were destroyed and two monks were seriously beaten. In this incident, two Jummas named Dipan Jyoti Chakma (12) and Sukamal Chakma (35) were killed and more than 100 were injured.
